The Digital Curiosity Collector

This is a quiet space to notice what sparks your imagination as you explore the digital world.

Ideas, questions, unexpected tools—everything you gather here can become seeds for future creativity.

How to Use This Sheet:

There's no right or wrong way to use this.

You might:

- Write a quick note each time you find something interesting
- Pause with a question you don't need to answer right away
- Collect tools, apps, or ideas that spark a tiny bit of wonder
- Doodle connections between discoveries

Use it often, or only when something calls you.

Your curiosity knows the way.
